From the Bronx to the top post at Cravath Swaine & Moore, Evan Chesler lives the consummate New York Story.

The Lawdragon 500 Leading Litigators

Fair Use

Energy Lawyers

Ronald Olson Munger Tolles & Olson (Los Angeles, California) The embattled Getty chose Warren Buffett’s litigator to investigate its finances and acquisitions. Brian O’Neill Faegre & Benson (Minneapolis, Minnesota) The real deal, whether helping Exxon with its Valdez appeal or vexing Supervalu for a failed joint venture. Randall Oppenheimer O’Melveny & Myers (Los Angeles, California) He’s in the spotlight battling for Enron’s Jeffery Skilling. John O’Quinn O’Quinn Larrinack & Pirrie (Houston, Texas) The Longhorn-sized legend has scored more than $20 billion for smokers, those with faulty breast implants and others. Jerold Oshinsky Dickstein Shapiro Morin & Oshinsky (Washington, D.C.) He’s on speed dial for corporations with complex insurance claims. Barry Ostrager Simpson Thacher & Bartlett (New York, New York) Twin Towers insurer Swiss Re and JP Morgan Chase rely on this high-profile litigator. Wayne Outten Outten & Golden (New York, New York) A warrior for unfairly treated employees — Morgan Stanley paid $54 million. Cliff Palefsky McGuinn Hillsman & Palefsky (San Francisco, California) This employment star fights for workers’ rights and battles mandatory arbitration. Brian Panish Panish Shea & Boyle (Los Angeles, California) After $4.9 billion for an exploding Chevy Malibu, he keeps the wins coming. Peter Parcher Manatt Phelps & Phillips (New York, New York) He litigates the business of stardom for R. Kelly, Julie Andrews and Dylan.